Review process:
As you know, predatory conferences are a great threat to the legitimacy and integrity of academia as a whole. We want you, and the scientific community, to be confident that all content presented at this event is thoroughly vetted and reviewed. That is why we will be using a single-blind review process to evaluate all submissions.

Next steps:
- Submit your paper through the link above
- You will receive a confirmation email letting you know that we've received your application
- We'll reach out on or before September 1, 2022, to let you know if your application was successful

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions about this process.
